

Reminder flyers are EVERYTHING!

Over the last 50 years, we've learned a lot about putting together a successful group, and one of the things that has stood out more than anything is the importance of getting the students excited and involving them in the trip promotion. Which is why, through the Recipe for Success, we make extensive use of flyers. Whether it's a Parent Meeting Reminder Flyer or a Registration Deadline Reminder Flyer, these tools are invaluable!

We want flyers to get in the hands of every student. The student must take the flyer home and hand it to mom and dad and tell them they 'want to go!' We want the parents to stop and see the information and then take action!

Check out our text codes!

You may have noticed our text codes on our registration deadline reminder flyers and our registration deadline extension flyers. This is a great tool that allows parents (or students) to get more information if they missed the parent meeting texted to them on their mobile phones. Information like trip videos, program highlights, financial assistance and more is available at their finger tips. Check it out!
