

Compare Leaders

The picture above shows many of the first leaders of our nation. Consider the many other leaders that have presented themselves since that point in history. Leadership can happen on many levels. We have national leaders, community leaders, school leaders, and church leaders.

Think through the many leaders that have influenced you throughout your life. The goal of this assignment is to have you compare two leaders, determine how leadership traits may vary between leaders, and explain if those traits relate to the needs of the time period.

Choose two leaders. Your first leader must be one that you have learned about in school, and whose leadership occurred more than fifty years ago. Your second leader must be a person whose leadership occurred during your lifetime - this leader may be a national leader or one from your community.

Your final product should incorporate a response to each bullet below:

- Provide a brief introduction to each leader accompanied by a photo.
- Share the similarities and differences in leadership traits.
- Share the similarities and differences in the factors that may have influenced each leader's decisions.
- Share how faith may have influenced their leadership.

You have three submission options for this assignment. Please choose one of the following:

- 1. Make a carefully planned and well-constructed presentation (think PowerPoint, Google slides, or Prezi). Include captioned photos along with your detailed and well-developed comparisons. Be sure to cite any sources and images used.
- 2. Create a well-organized table. Your table should be organized in such a way that the similarities and differences are highlighted and well-developed, and your personal experiences are included. Be sure to cite any sources used.
- 3. Write a well-developed essay. Your written discussion should include a paragraph (five to seven sentences) in response to each of the bullet points above. Be sure to cite any sources.
