My Generation

In your schoolwork, in your extracurricular activities, and in your everyday life, you use technology. Can you imagine a world where technology was not available to send, listen to, and experience music of the world? How would someone 100 years ago experience music compared to how you experience it now? What changes do you feel will be made over the next 100 years?

Watch a few minutes of Eric Whitacre's Virtual Choir 3 below.

What are your impressions of how technology has positively or negatively affected music?

"Technology will continue to advance and change the music industry. Musicians must not fight this; they must embrace technology and take advantage of the opportunities available." - Terry Kim
