

Use this Proven Outline to Announce the Trip to the Students!

I have an announcement about something that will be the most exciting thing you do all year. Next [spring/summer], I will be leading a trip to [destination] and I want all of you to come. You are all invited! It's going to be great. Now, I'm going to show you a short video...check this out!

Show the video to the students! It's guaranteed to get them excited for the trip!

That's going to be us. We're going to do all that stuff. This is going to be the most fun you've ever had. I will be sending each of your parents an email announcing a virtual meeting I'll be hosting about the trip. Go home tonight and tell your parents you want to go on this trip – and that they need to attend this meeting. In fact, text them now if you can and tell them to be on the look out for this email. I want to see each of you – and your families – at this meeting.
