the Civil Rights Trail

Monuments, memorials, and more! A trip along the Civil Rights Trail gives you an up-close and personal look at the sacrifice and leadership of our country's greatest activists. Visit the locations of large-scale demonstrations during the 1960s, explore the path from Selma to Montgomery, and have a blast making unforgettable memories with your friends.

LEAP into history

This trip will provide endless opportunities for hands-on interaction with the history and landmarks you may have only seen in your classroom. We call this LEAP—Learning through Exploration and Active Participation—and it creates the perfect balance of fun and education on every trip!
